

Leave this can of food on your pantry shelf or in your cupboard as a reminder:

- ...of the monthly neighborhood food shelf pick-up.
- ...of the 20,000 people living in poverty in Dakota County who need the support of a caring community
- ...that “a small group of committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.”
—Margaret Mead

Leave this can of food on your pantry shelf or in your cupboard as a reminder:

- ...of the monthly neighborhood food shelf pick-up.
- ...of the 20,000 people living in poverty in Dakota County who need the support of a caring community
- ...that “a small group of committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.”
—Margaret Mead

Leave this can of food on your pantry shelf or in your cupboard as a reminder:

- ...of the monthly neighborhood food shelf pick-up.
- ...of the 20,000 people living in poverty in Dakota County who need the support of a caring community
- ...that “a small group of committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.”
—Margaret Mead

Leave this can of food on your pantry shelf or in your cupboard as a reminder:

- ...of the monthly neighborhood food shelf pick-up.
- ...of the 20,000 people living in poverty in Dakota County who need the support of a caring community
- ...that “a small group of committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.”
—Margaret Mead

